DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 4-6, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mizutome et al (hereinafter Mizutome), US 2002/0078447.

- In regards to claims 1, 5, 6, and 9, Mizutome teaches an electronic apparatus comprising: a display controlling means for controlling the display of an image on a screen (Figure 19 and 20); a storing means for storing a plurality of types of constitutive elements for generating a program for displaying an image the screen, and for storing display information for a constitutive element from the plurality of types of constitutive elements (Figure 19 and 20); a first selection means for selecting a screen layout from a plurality of screen layout options that are consecutively displayed (page 4 paragraph [0081]); a generation means for generating a new image including the selected screen layout (page 6 paragraphs [0103]-[0106], wherein when a screen layout is selected it is then generated as a new image), a first constitutive element selection area (Fig. 20, wherein the first area is the submenu area of window 1 and the first element is the selected item from the submenu), and a second constitutive element selection area (Fig. 20, wherein the first area is the submenu area of window 2 and the second element is the selected item from the submenu), wherein the first constitutive element selection area and the second constitutive element selection area are not displayed within the selected screen layout (Fig. 20, wherein the selection areas in figure 20 are menu displays not within the selected screen layout); and a second selection means for selecting a first constitutive element displayed within the first constitutive element selection area (page 8 paragraphs [0122]-[0125], Figures 18A-C and 22, wherein the second selection means of a first constitutive element is choosing a channel on TV to be displayed and the first selection area is the main display (Fig. 18C, "News TV1)), and a second constitutive element displayed within the second constitutive element selection area, wherein the second constitutive element selection area displays more than one source of information (page 8 paragraphs [0122]-[0125], Figures 18A-C and 22, wherein the second constitutive element is choosing another channel on TV to be displayed and the second selection area is a smaller corner display (Fig. 18C, "News headlines" or "weather forecast," and wherein more than one source of information is the "clock display" in the second constitutive element selection area (Fig. 18C))), and the generation means generates the program (page 3 paragraph 0073]).

- In regards to claim 4, Mizutome teaches wherein the storing means stores a program generated by the generation means (page 4 paragraph [0083] and page 5 paragraphs [0094] and [0095]).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 12/1/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Mizutome does not teach a first constitutive element selection area, and a second constitutive element selection area, wherein the first constitutive element selection area and the second constitutive element selection area are not displayed within the selected screen layout.

Examiner disagrees. Mizutome does teach a first constitutive element selection area (Fig. 20, wherein the first area is the submenu area of window 1 and the first element is the selected item from the submenu), and a second constitutive element selection area (Fig. 20, wherein the first area is the submenu area of window 2 and the second element is the selected item from the submenu), wherein the first constitutive element selection area and the second constitutive element selection area are not displayed within the selected screen layout (Fig. 20, wherein the selection areas in figure 20 are menu displays not within the selected screen layout). The first and second constitutive element selection areas are both displayed on a different display page than the selected screen layout and are therefore not within the selected screen layout. Furthermore, Mizutome then meets the claim limitations 1, 4, 6, and 9.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
